

RI Horseman's Association
APPLICATIONS FOR SHOW AFFILIATION/DATES

- A. Application for affiliation shall be filed with the Secretary at least 30 days prior to date of show on a form supplied by the Association. In the event that any show fails to comply, the Secretary is instructed to notify all Delegates and Members that this show is not recognized by the Association and points shall not apply toward Annual Awards.
- B. Applications for affiliation must be accompanied by a check, payable to Rhode Island Horseman's Association.
- C. A tentative Prize List shall be filed with the application, or in any event, be forwarded to the Prize List Editor 30 days prior to the date of the show for classification, proof reading and date approval BEFORE printing and distributing. Prize lists not submitted and running any divisions or classes not complying with RIHA rules will not count for points towards High Score Awards. Names for TBA Judges should be submitted to Editor or RIHA Secretary seven days prior to show. Any show failing to submit a proposed prize list 30 days prior to the show will be fined $25.00. Failing to make corrections to the prize list will be fined $25.00.
- D. Show Violations - RIHA reserves the right to investigate allegations or complaints of rules violations or unsportsmanlike behavior by show management, show officials and/or members at any time. A member show found guilty of any violation shall be subject to penalty including, but not limited to, the following.:
1. Censure. A vote of Censure shall be listed under the member show's name in the RIHA Show Relations Record of Penalties. If found guilty of further violations, the show shall be liable for a heavier penalty than for the first offense.
 2. Fine in an amount not to exceed three times the annual dues of the member show. Fines will be increased by $25.00 for each repeated offense.
 3. Suspension as an RIHA Member Show for a period determined by the Board of Delegates.
 4. Expulsion from membership in the RIHA.
 5. Shows who have not paid their penalties, by December 15, will not be included as affiliated shows in the new book or supplement. Dates for affiliation will not be granted until fines of the previous year are paid.
- E. Shows affiliated with RIHA the previous year may reserve the corresponding show dates for the current show year only by filing an application and paying the required fees before December 1st of the current show year.
- F. Dates not so reserved shall be open after December 15th and shall be awarded to the show first applying and paying the required fees.
- G. When two such shows duly apply before December 15th for conflicting dates, show dates to be allotted as follows:
- In case of multiple shows applying for the same date and disciplines, it would be given to the show with the highest rating the previous year. Dates to be assigned on basis of show with the highest number of divisions with the highest rating.
1. If both shows were affiliated the previous year, to the show which had the corresponding dates the previous year.

2. If one show was affiliated the previous year and one was not, to the show affiliated the previous year.
 3. If neither was affiliated the previous year, but one was formerly
 4. If neither was formerly affiliated, to the show whose application and fees are received first.
 5. If a show has the same qualifying and Championship classes in a division on more than one day, this required two separate show affiliation forms.
- H. The fees for affiliation with the RIHA: A one-day show: $25.00; A two-day show: $35.00; 3 or more day show: $50.00.
- I. Any RIHA affiliated show must show proof of one million dollars in general liability insurance for each occurrence. RIHA must be named as "additional insured" and certificate must stipulate date of events. A copy of this certificate must be postmarked and mailed to the Administration Office (RIHA Secretary) two (2) weeks prior to the show. Failure to comply with this rule will result in a $200 fine to the show. Any upcoming RIHA Affiliated Shows for the offender may be revoked and the following years show affiliations for the offender will be in jeopardy.

NOTE: NO JUDGE MAY JUDGE MORE THAN THREE (3) SHOWS IN ONE SEASON FOR THE SAME MANAGEMENT.

All show managers who manage RIHA shows must be members of the RIHA.

Show managers shall consist of people who adhere to the high principles of the association and who, in general, have demonstrated by example good citizenship in the general community. Criteria for show management shall include, but is not limited to, high ethical and moral values; demonstration of sportsmanship; a commitment to fair competition; demonstration of loyalty to the "horse community"; strict adherence to the laws of the United States, the State of Rhode Island, and the municipalities, as well as strict adherence to the rules of the RIHA.

No person who has been suspended from running NEHC or USEF horse shows shall be granted affiliation.

The granting, refusal or removal of RIHA affiliation of a horse show shall be at the sole discretion of the RIHA Board of Directors via the Affiliation Committee.

No show shall be affiliated which has previously failed to fulfill the obligations to the Association outlined in these Regulations.

All specifications not covered in these Regulations shall be in accordance with Regulations of the New England Horseman's Council Inc. At any show affiliated with the NEHC the Regulations of NEHC shall prevail over these regulations.

Prize lists must contain the names of judges and these judges must have formally accepted invitations to officiate.

When more than one judge is listed, the prize list shall specify the divisions in which each judge shall officiate. If the judge is physically unable to officiate, a substitution may be made.

In the event that an announced judge cannot officiate for any reason, a written statement from the judge to that effect shall be obtained by the management and submitted to the Secretary of the Association.

Any show using one judge may not require that judge to officiate more than 12 hours.

If a horse show manager does not conform to the previous ruling, the points given in his show do not count toward the High Score Award.

All Breed Shows may engage Recognized Judges from their Organization's Official Judges' List.

All shows shall supply the judges with scoring cards for each class on which the complete specifications for the class are clearly printed.

All shows must have a Steward in attendance at all sessions.

The Steward must be approved by the New England Horseman's Council.

All RIHA Shows are to have Stewards that are USEF or NEHC Recognized.

Any show that has three or more areas working simultaneously should have two Stewards. Four or more must have two stewards.

The Steward shall not be an exhibitor at this show nor hold any other official capacity in connection with the show. No Steward may officiate in any show in which any members of his family or any of his clients is judging or taking part as an exhibitor. The name of the Steward must appear on the Prize List.

In the event that an announced Steward cannot officiate for any reason a written statement from the Steward to that effect shall be obtained by the management and submitted to the Secretary of the Association.

The ringmaster may not officiate in any division of a show in which he or a member of his family or any of his clients is an exhibitor.

Any RIHA affiliated shows must require animals to have a Coggins test taken within twelve months prior to date of show. Papers to be available. (Weanling and Yearlings exempt).
